

A two day course on Nephrology relevant to Intensive Care, including renal replacement therapy, aimed at the level of senior trainees in Intensive Care Medicine and senior Intensive Care Nurses , and is also suitable for trainees in other acute specialties or as a refresher for Intensive Care Specialists , consisting of pre-course material, lectures and small group tutorials/skill stations

Saturday 7th March & Sunday 8th March 2020

(following NZ ANZICS Conference)

Venue: Hawke's Bay ( Hawke's Bay Hospital , Fallen Soldiers Memorial)

Numbers strictly limited:

Course includes pre-course reading, lectures , skill stations, learning assessment.

Candidates should preferably have attended a BASIC course prior to the Beyond BASIC course.

Participants must have read the textbook and have completed an online MCQ test prior to attending the course.

- TOPICS INCLUDE

Acute Kidney Injury, Chronic Kidney Disease, Modes of Renal replacement therapy including CRRT, Abdominal Compartment Syndrome, Rhabdomyolysis, and Drug Dosing.

contact ross.freebairn@xtra.co.nz or Sandra.Bee@hawkesbaydhb.govt.nz

Fee: $480 (prior to 21/12/19) then $600 (until 1/02/20)

Jointly developed by the BASIC collaboration and the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine